SACA MEMBER INFORMATION

Membership of the South Australian Cricket Association allows you to enter the ground and members enclosure for all International and Domestic cricket matches, including Test matches, One Day International matches, KFC Twenty20 International, Sheffield Shield, Ryobi Cup and KFC Twenty20 Big Bash League and all finals.

Other privileges of being a SACA Member include:

- The option to purchase a transferable associate card for others to use
- The opportunity to bring in up to five guests for selected match days
- Access to member only dining and catering facilities
- The opportunity to attend special member events at the Adelaide Oval
- Access to interstate association grounds via reciprocal privileges
- Nomination and voting rights for the SACA Board elections and voting at the SACA Annual General Meeting

The SACA Board of Management determines the number of people offered Membership in August of each year and the number varies from year to year. We are therefore unable to precisely determine the length of time you will be required to wait before you are offered Membership of the Association, but current estimates are between 2- 5 years.

An application for the membership waitlist may be lodged at any time irrespective of the age of the applicant. No applicant shall be offer membership until he/she has reached the top of the waitlist and is at least 10 years of age (as at 1 September). Applicants aged 10- 14 years that choose not to accept the offer of membership will automatically be added back on the waitlist and the applicant will be automatically re-offered again at the age of 15.

SACA WAITLIST TERMS AND CONDITIONS

On receipt of this form, together with the $40 application fee, the applicant's name will be placed on the wait list and a letter of acknowledgement will be sent to them. When the applicant's name has hit the top of the waitlist and their turn for election comes around, he/she will be notified accordingly. The membership fees will be payable when such notice is given.

An application for membership may be lodged at any time irrespective of the age of the applicant. No applicant shall be elected to junior membership until he/she has reached the age of 10 years (as at 1 September).
